Walnut Creek, Calif. – Thursday, March 14, 2019 – For Immediate Release

Jeremy Stolle, current cast member of The Phantom of the Opera on Broadway, leads his multi-talented group, featuring Heather Lundstedt O'Neill and Joseph Paul Rykert, in a high energy Broadway band concert experience. The Unreachable Stars will have music enthusiasts singing and dancing like they are at a rock show. Everyone in the band plays multiple instruments, sings in 5 languages and rocks the theater with never-ending enthusiasm for Broadway and beyond. The Unreachable Stars crosses over several musical genres, including pop and contemporary. With over ten years' experience in The Phantom of the Opera, Jeremy has many hilarious tales to tell that will keep you at the edge of your seat.

"The Unreachable Stars performed theatre musical magic at our HOA on Sunday night. The group, led by Jeremy Stolle, was engaging, energetic, and exciting singing their own renditions of popular Broadway and pop tunes. Each member was featured in solo and duet performances as well as together with the four-person ensemble."* – Steven Nussbaum

The music has been designed for full Broadway impact by movie composer James Morgan in his New York Sound studios and the arrangements of these hit songs are made to go big or go home! Don't be alarmed to be invited to sing and dance along with the Stars.

The Unreachable Stars perform hit songs from stage to screen and from all over the world. There is truly something for everyone. This trio of singers can do anything, and they spend the entire show proving it. You will laugh, love and have the uncontrollable urge to sing on the way out of the theater.

The Unreachable Stars has sold out to audiences across the US and is returning after a hugely successful tour through China this past Winter. The Unreachable Stars has featured amazing talent such as Lauren Jelencovich from Yanni, Broadway Recording superstar composer Michael Mott, and Broadway's Christine in The Phantom of the Opera, Mary Michael Patterson.

The Unreachable Stars will be performing at the Leshar Center for the Arts in Walnut Creek for one night only on Thursday, April 4, 2019 at 7:30pm.
